

CHEROKEE HISTORY AND CULTURE INSTITUTE
Museum of the Cherokee Indian July 11-15, 2016

Goal: The goal of the Institute is to provide accurate information about the Cherokees (and other American Indians,) resources, and to provide connections with Cherokee people. We will read and discuss articles from a variety of disciplines. Interviews, field trips, and experiences on the Qualla Boundary, home of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, will be integrated with academic study.

Credit and hours: The Institute begins at 9 am on Monday and ends at 5 pm on Friday. It includes more than 40 contact hours. If you need a letter stating the hours and topics for independent study or continuing education credits, the Museum will provide a letter on your request.

Schedule : Day 1: Archaeology, Day 2: Anthropology, Day 3: History, Day 4: Cultural Geography, Day 5: Folklore, Literature and Art; stereotypes; practical applications. To see last year's syllabus and activities, go to:

<http://www.cherokeemuseum.org/education-history.htm>

Costs: Institute fee: $500 per person. Includes all activity fees, one dinner and one lunch. Make check payable to Museum of the Cherokee Indian.

Send checks to: Attn: Amber Treadway, Museum of the Cherokee Indian P.O. Box 1599 Cherokee NC 28719. Phone: 828 497-3481 x208. Email: atreadway@cherokeemuseum.org

Books and Materials: Cherokee Nation; a Troubled History; Living Stories of the Cherokee; Plants and the Cherokee DVD; Timberlake Memoirs; Cherokee Heritage Trails Guidebook.

Accommodations: Participants are responsible for their own room and board if staying in Cherokee.

Museum Membership: Participants may want to consider becoming museum members. Benefits include a subscription to the Journal of Cherokee Studies and a 20% discount in the Museum Store, as well as a discount on course fees if membership at the appropriate level is purchased before enrolling in the course. Contact: jcooper@cherokeemuseum.org This is not a course requirement, just a suggestion.

Accessibility: All museum facilities comply with NC building codes for accessibility.

Registration: Class size will be limited and participants will be registered on a first-come, first-served basis. You are registered when we receive your payment and registration form.

Questions and info: Barbara R. Duncan, Ph.D., Education Director
Phone: 828-497-3481 x306 Email: bduncan@cherokeemuseum.org

CHEROKEE HISTORY AND CULTURE INSTITUTE 2016
REGISTRATION FORM

Name:

Address:

Phone: work

Phone: home

Email:

Grade and subject taught:

School district:

Museum Institute Fee: $500 Make check payable to Museum of the Cherokee Indian

---

Contact info:

Barbara R. Duncan, Ph.D. Education Director

Museum of the Cherokee Indian

589 Tsali Blvd. PO Box 1599

Cherokee NC 28719

1-828-497-3481x306

www.cherokeemuseum.org

bduncan@cherokeemuseum.org